MEDIA AWARDS 2023
Entry Terms & Conditions

Celebrating the Positive Impact of Tourism Storytellers

Overview

The Inspire Global Media Awards recognise excellence across the travel media landscape, celebrating individuals and organisations, bringing to life stories of sustainable, positive impact tourism.

The IGMAs 2023 will reward entries that raise awareness on positive impact travel; remain inspiring and informative, striking a good balance between providing readers and listeners with a wider understanding of tourism as a vital contributor in creating socio-cultural, environmental and economic benefits, while painting a colourful picture of the destination or experience.

Entry Criteria

- There is no cost for entering the Inspire Global Media Awards 2023
- All submissions must have a PDF, non-paywall weblink and/or social media handle
- All submissions must be published between 1 January 2022 and 28 February 2023
- All entries must be submitted via the submission form, which can be downloaded HERE (please note a separate form is required for each entry), by midnight (GMT) on 28 February 2023
- In the event that an entry is inaccurate or incomplete, does not comply with these conditions for entry or is deemed, at the sole discretion of Inspire Global, ineligible for any other reason, then the relevant entry will be disqualified.

Judging and shortlist conditions

- Inspire Global shall consider each entry on its merits and on the basis solely of the information provided in the relevant entry.
- Inspire Global will shortlist the entries to go through to a final judging phase. The winners will be decided by Inspire Global's appointed Judges; who are a diverse group of authors, travel editors, tour operators, and positive impact and sustainability experts.
- You will be informed whether your entry has been shortlisted in March 2023 via email.
- Shortlisted entries will be required to supply images and other information to Inspire Global to be used for display in Inspire Global's marketing materials leading up to the Awards and during the week of the event. Entrants authorise Inspire Global to publicly display all and any such images and information provided for this purpose.
- The winners will be announced at the Media Awards ceremony on 4 April 2023, at venue tba.
- Inspire Global's decisions relating to shortlisting and granting of Awards in the course of judging is final and will not enter into any correspondence or discussion with any entrants on any subject nor will Inspire Global accept any submissions, representations or appeals with regard to such decisions.
- Inspire Global reserves the right to:
 - Disqualify entries that do not comply with these Terms & Conditions or for any other reason
 - Move an entry to another category without notice, if Inspire Global feels it would be better suited to the relevant category
 - Remove an Award category
 - Disqualify any entry that is a product of two or more companies that does not have the agreement of all parties
